

Security Equipment Incorporated Headquarters

Lund-Ross worked closely with SEI and Sanford Group to meet a tight budget and a timeline that only allowed for 3 months of construction. The 14,000 square foot open office space was renovated to include executive offices, meeting rooms, sales offices and a large command center to monitor security systems nationwide. New mechanical and electrical systems were installed including a critical power system to support the command center.

LOCATION: Omaha, Nebraska
OWNER: Security Equipment Incorporated
CATEGORY: Commercial
SERVICES: Construction Manager at Risk
BUDGET: $900,000
ARCHITECT: Sanford Architecture
COMPLETED DATE: September 2015

LUND-ROSS TEAM:

Read more

• TROY MEYERSICK - Project Manager